FOREWORD

Look around! There's so much to see—everywhere you want to look. From pond water to outer space, life is pulsating, breathing, discovering and growing. All this is wasted, though, unless you will notice it.

In this year's San Gorgonian we have tried to capture the action at Banning High, to include both the things everyone sees and the less obvious sights. Our purpose is Awareness—to make you Aware of Banning High, its personalities, its activities, and, in a broader sense, of the world and our place in it.

DEDICATION

MRS. RUTH VARNEY

Mrs. Varney majored in English and P.E. at Parsons College, Iowa, where she received her B.A. degree. In California she did graduate work at U.S.C., U.C.L.A., and U.C.R. She first came to Banning High in 1936, as a P.E. teacher. Since then she has worked in many areas, including English, Journalism, Student Council and Leadership. She has taught continuously here since then, except for 1947-52, when she was an officer of P.E.O., an honorary women's organization, becoming state president in 1951-52.

The students and faculty extend our gratitude and say, "we dedicate this book to you in thanks for the time, energy and guidance you have dedicated to us".

LOOK AROUND

Look around Look around Look up Look down
Look here Look there Look everywhere

Do you see spirit
    exploding with enthusiasm?
Do you see effort
    accomplishing a goal?
Do you see friendship
    reaching out its hand?
Do you see what's happening
    happening all over?
Do you see our campus
    standing proudly?

Charge of the Lunch Brigade

When you walk through a storm hold your head up high

Keep shoveling it in Wischan

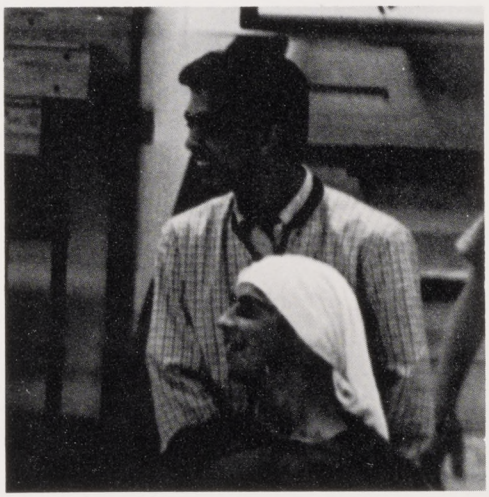
SPIRIT

Shout! Scream! Shriek! Score!
Hail the heroes forevermore!

Green and white flash into the air
As bodies jump and dance
A swish of tail, of black and white
And a horse begins to prance.

Faces cheer and hands meet wildly
As players score and win
A ball is passed, a point is made
And spirit escapes from within.

Boots and knees marching together
As patterns form on the field
A trumpet blares, a drum cadence rolls
And a melody is revealed.



Climbing on the monkey bars.

Trying just this once to get the experiment right.

EFFORT IS

Trying not to look too uncoordinated

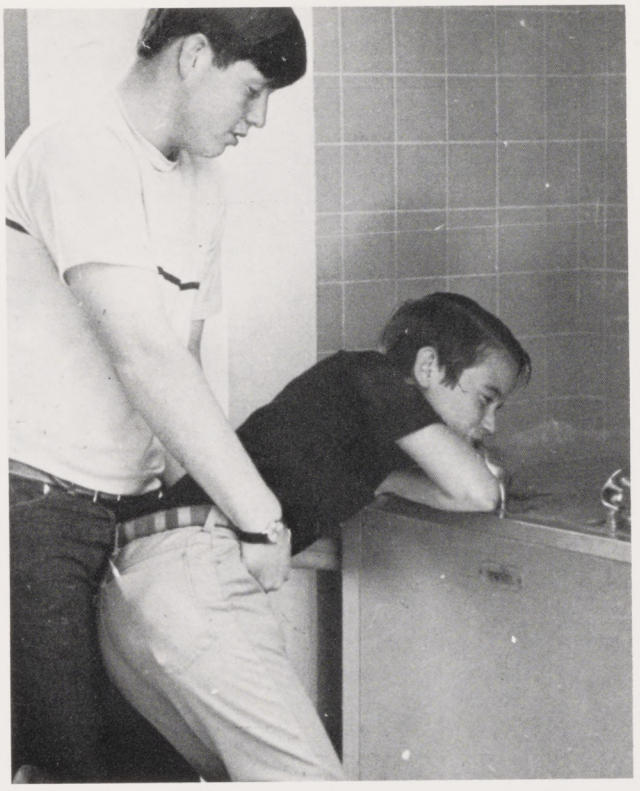
A happy smiling friend.



Doing for others what they cannot do for themselves.

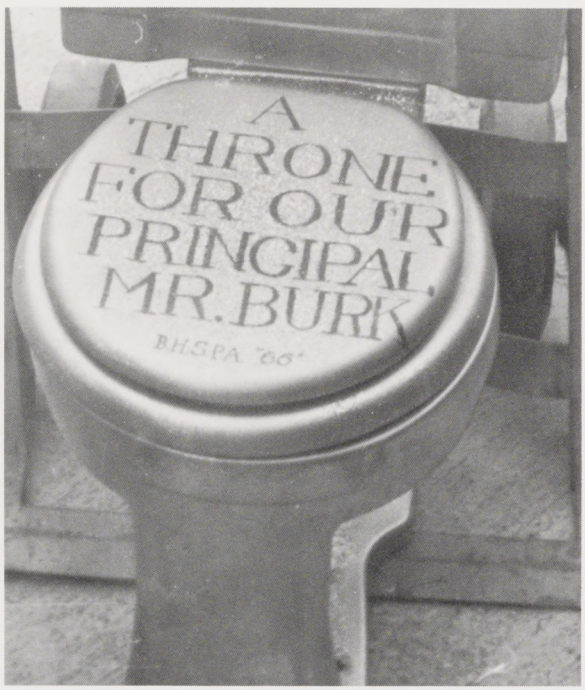
FRIENDSHIP IS

Sharing the grass with someone else.

WHAT'S HAPPENING

Mrs. Wood was seen smiling again.

Products of Mr. Noble's tax evasion course.



Mr. Burke received a gift of appreciation from the B.P.A.

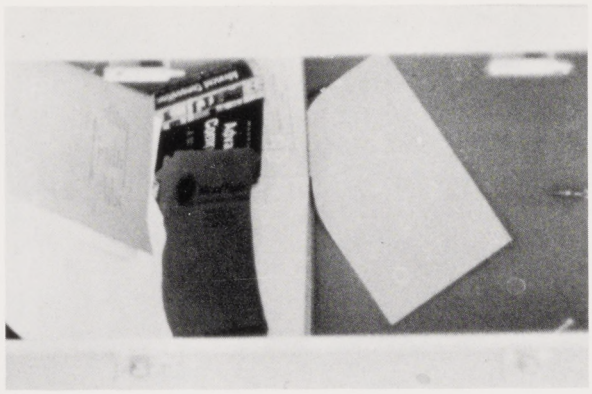
The Monkees—on record and off.

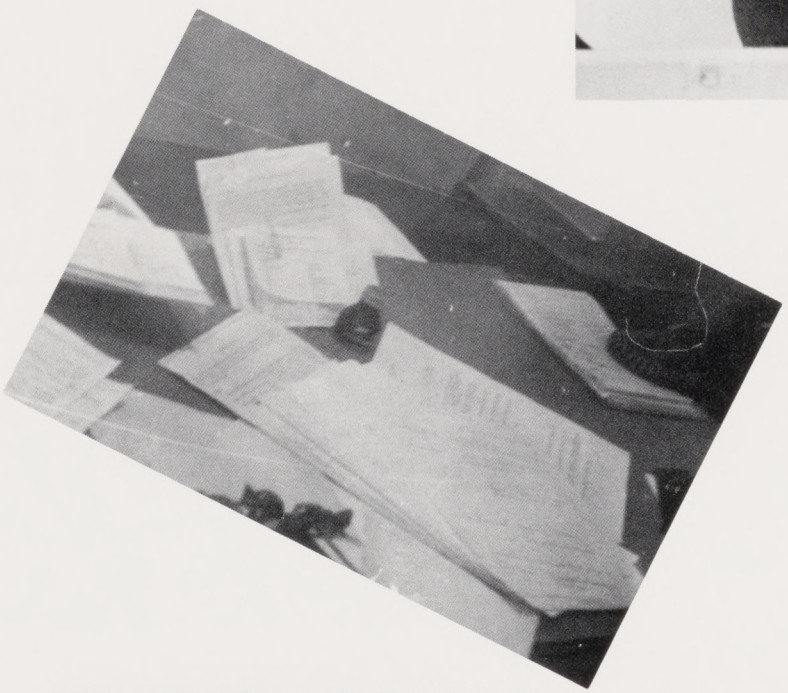
The bench-warmers club meets daily

The cafeteria was newly decorated . . . twice!

Practice, practice, practice

Have you
Handed papers in two days late?
Lost overdue library books?
Forgotten where your P.E. clothes are?
Received a lot of digusted looks?



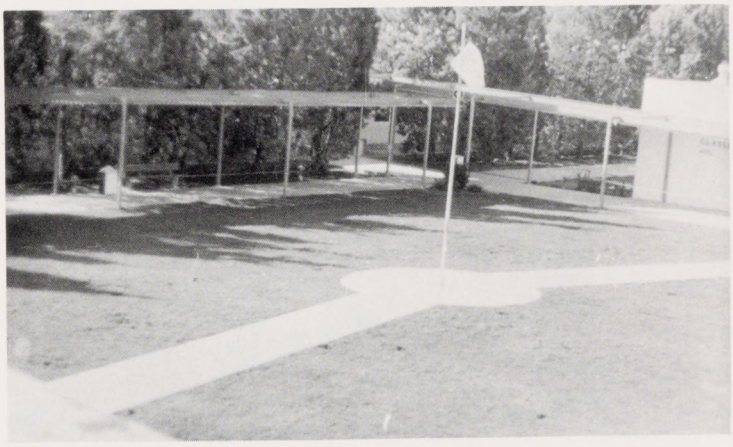


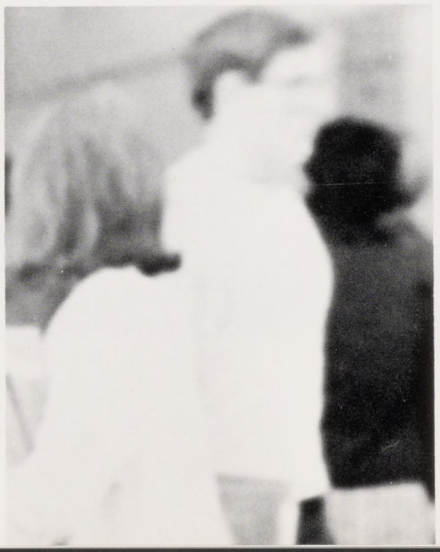
Join the organized organization.

ORGANIZATION

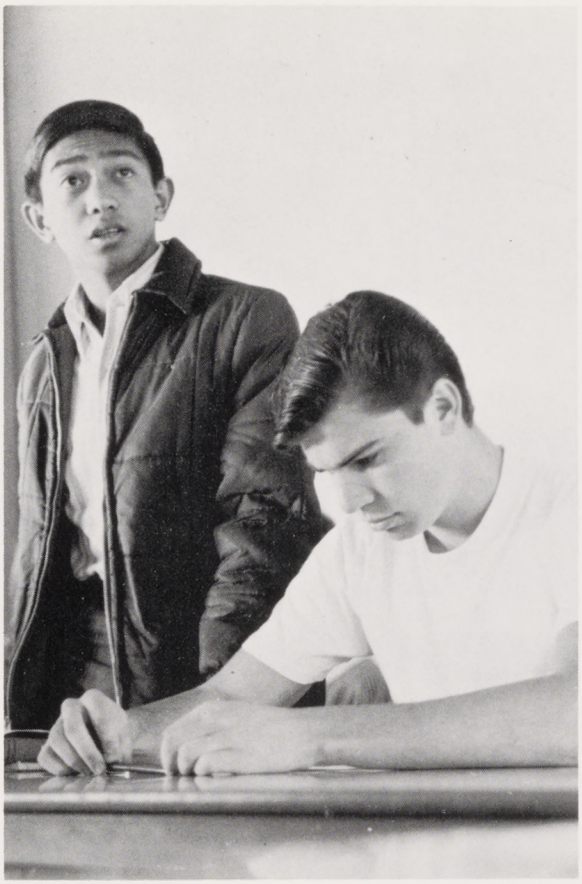
OUR CAMPUS

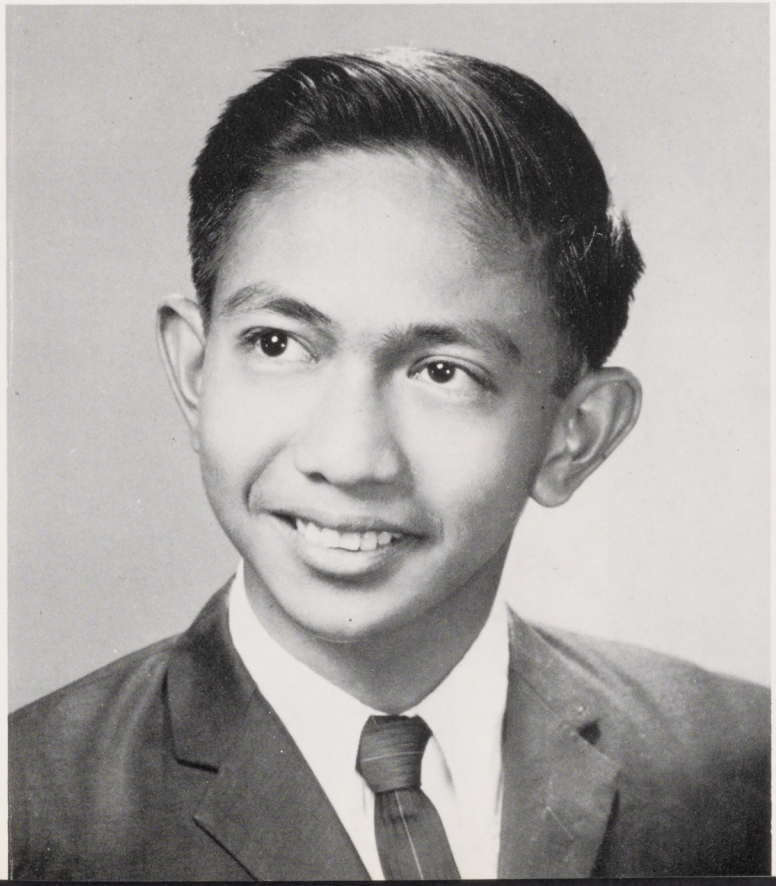
A privileged tree in Senior Square
Football bleachers worn and bare
A grassy quad—our high school mall
Faces and people filling the hall.





With Grete Kaiser came another opportunity to know our neighbors. She is a perfect example of poise and charm, and her warmth and happiness come to all of us through her smile. She takes an active part in our school activities and is always willing to become involved.





Anyone in Banning who has talked to, been with, or just observed Jay deVera has to agree the AFS program is a wonderful step to personal and world-wide understanding. Jay is alive in the truest sense, vibrant, and never dull. Although he will return to his home, many of us will always feel closer to the Philippines and all other foreign nations because of him.

Best Personality—Ernie Flores and Len Callahan

Cutest—Steve Lewis and Sandi Kettering

OUTSTANDING OF

Most Likely To Succeed—George Constantino and Carol Fleig

Friendliest—Doug Gunther and Barbara Sevier

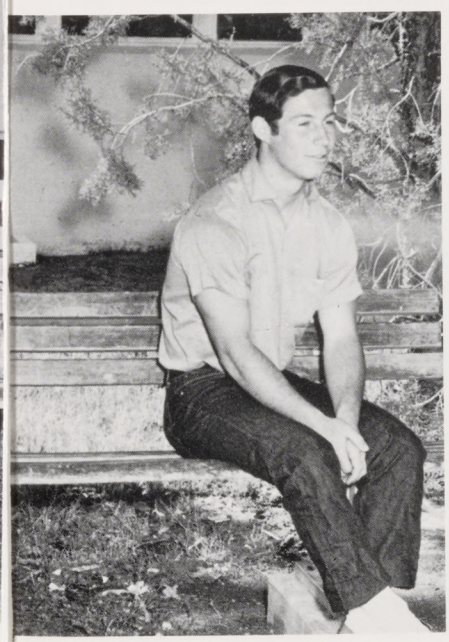
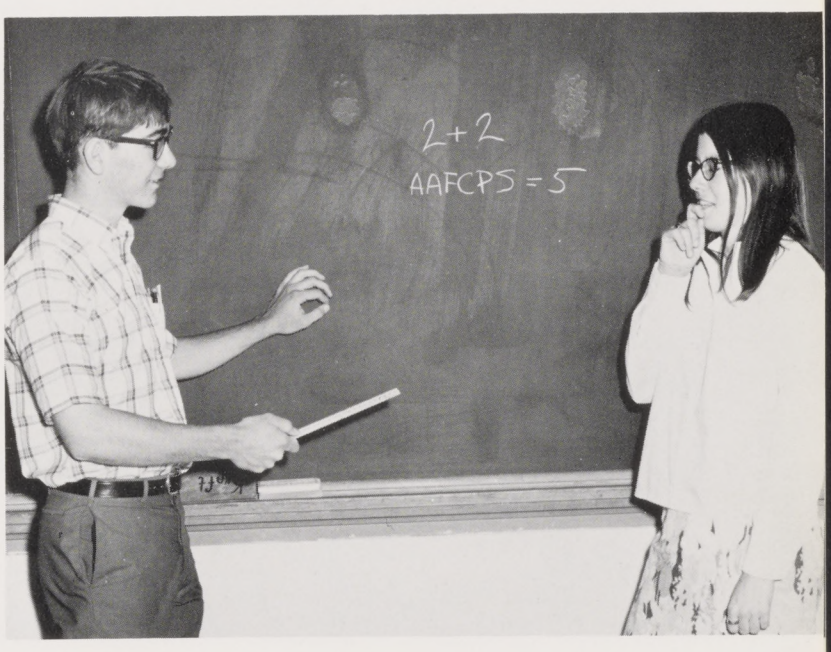
Best Sense of Humor—Art Kearney and Andi Rubalcava

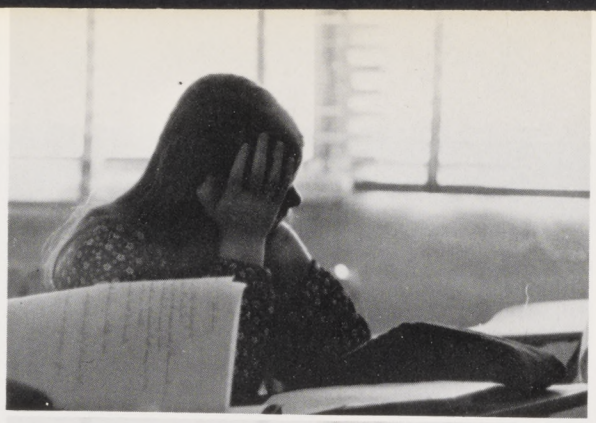


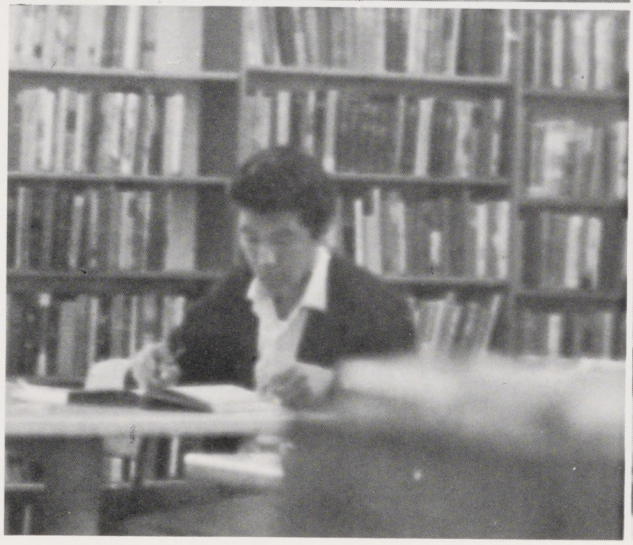
Most Intelligent—Don Cox and Sandi Shugart.

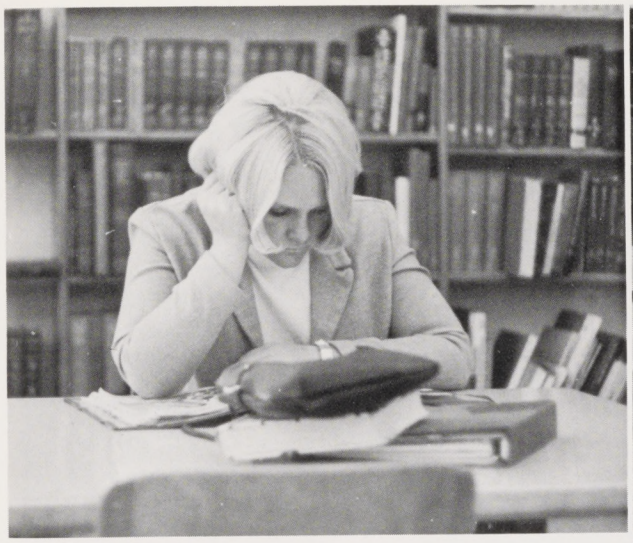


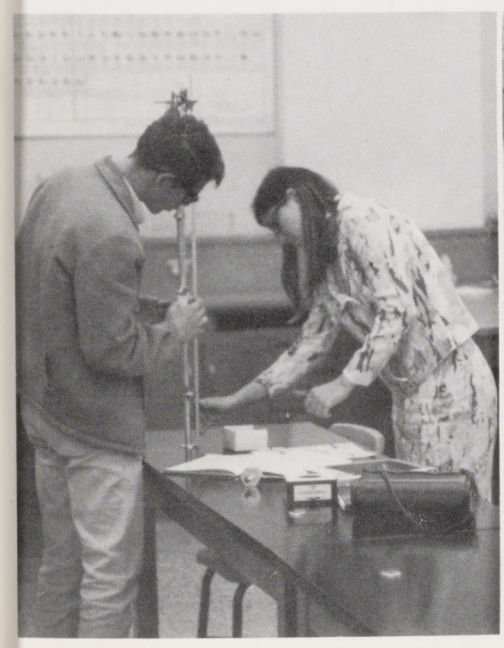
ACTION

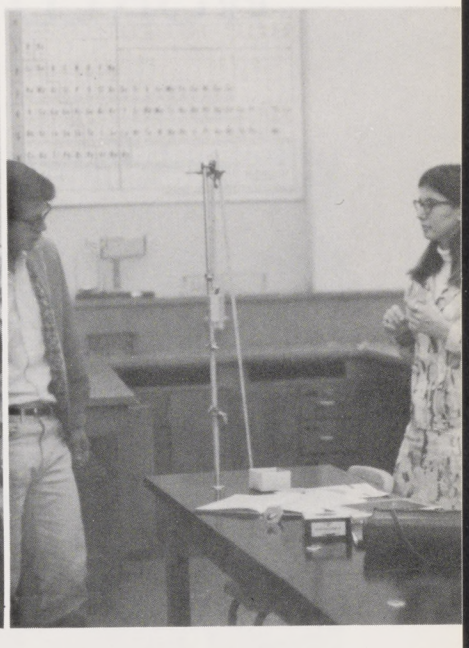
Yes, there is action at Banning High School. People are alive. They work, they study, and they have fun. For some, it is mostly work, and for others, it is mostly fun. We can stay up all night working on a term paper, or we can say heck with it, and take a lower grade. The decision is ours, and we usually regret it, but that's how things are, as we are all learning.









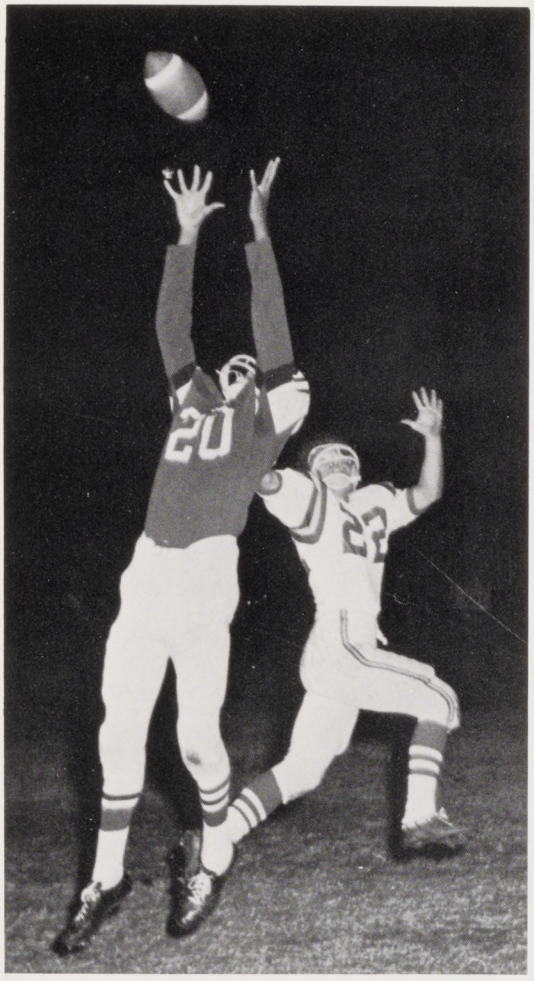


1st place—AFS Float

HOMECOMING—IT'S A SMALL WORLD

2nd place—Rally Float

3rd place—Senior Float



GAME

Although the Hemet-Banning Homecoming Game ended in a 7-6 score, the excitement of half-time and the suspense of the game made October 28 a night to be remembered.

QUEEN

The hand of the Drill team clock slowly passed each princess once—twice. Anxiously the crowd held its breath. When the suspense had built to a rising tension, the clock suddenly stopped at 8 o'clock. Aaaaa—the alarm rang with the excited scream of Queen Len Callahan and the roar of approval from the stands.

This year's Block B Invitational Christmas Tournament was packed with action as 16 teams competed in the four-day contest. When the last whistle had been blown, we found the desert team of Indio in first place, with Bloomington second, Hemet third, and Banning hanging on to fourth place.

What is it, Dick and George? A bird, a plane or a basket?

SPINSTER'S DANCE — CHAYA

Hey, wait a minute, George is my date tonight.

Yellow Acacia trees growing among Japanese pines and cherry blossoms,
Soft breezes blowing tinkling wind chimes and
the scent of incense,

Sparkling water flowing under a foot bridge
necklaced with flowers,
A dragon, fierce and mighty showing swinging between brightly-hued lanterns,
White pearls and jewels glowing on a deep red velvet
crown and throne,
People enjoying and knowing a night to be remembered as Chaya.

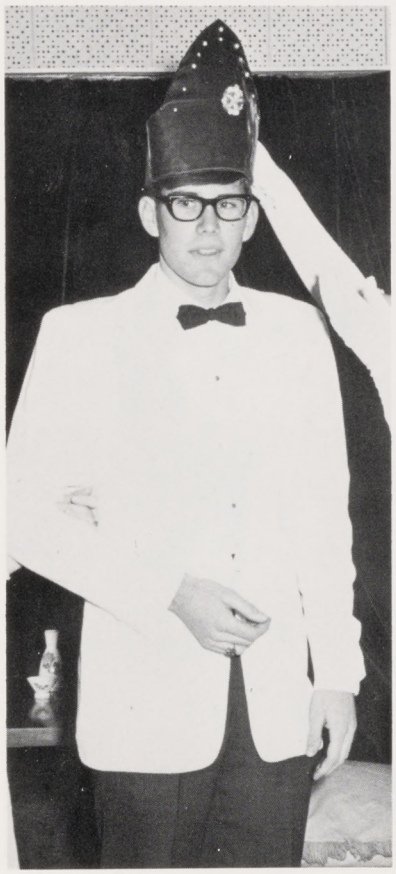
King George Constantino I and his escort Sherry Dragolovich.

I will now demonstrate my interpretation of the splits.



I crown you King—for three hours.

Oh come on, Shelley, everyone else is dancing close.

MISS BANNING

TONI MILLER

Here we see Miss Banning in her Queen Scheherazade outfit. Toni was selected as a member of the Queen's court when she went to represent Banning at the Indio Date Festival, and later went on to become Fourth runner-up at the Orange Show.

MISS CABAZON

SHARI JONES

Shari Jones, Miss Cabazon, is shown here while modeling at Madlin's Charm School, where she was chosen as "Model of the Year." Shari also received the honor of being chosen as a finalist in the "Miss Riverside County" contest.

Easy-going,
open minded,
An honest
pleasure to be with,
Gone.
Why?
This is not Justice.
This is Unfair;
This is Undeserved.
But all the time
I know it is me
who has lost,
not you.

THE FUTURE

The unknown . . .
Crystal ball world of our daydreams
An ever far-off star
The goal to be reached tomorrow.
All of our plans transformed to

Manager
Bruce Simpson

The first game of the new season brought the Broncos a defeat against the San Jacinto Tigers, with a smashing score of 21-12. The second game brought the Broncos a victory over the Aquinas Falcons. Our third and final non-league game saw the Broncos into another defeat against our cross town rivals the Beaumont Cougars, 20-0.

Mr. Dudney

WHAT IS IT?
Another horrible, unreal beast from the pages of a science fiction fantasy?
Wrong.
This is what Mr. Heslop and Mr. Dudney were presented with and commanded to turn into a team.
With discipline and hard work in the place of magic wands, they made a team that at the end of the season was separated from first place by only eight points.

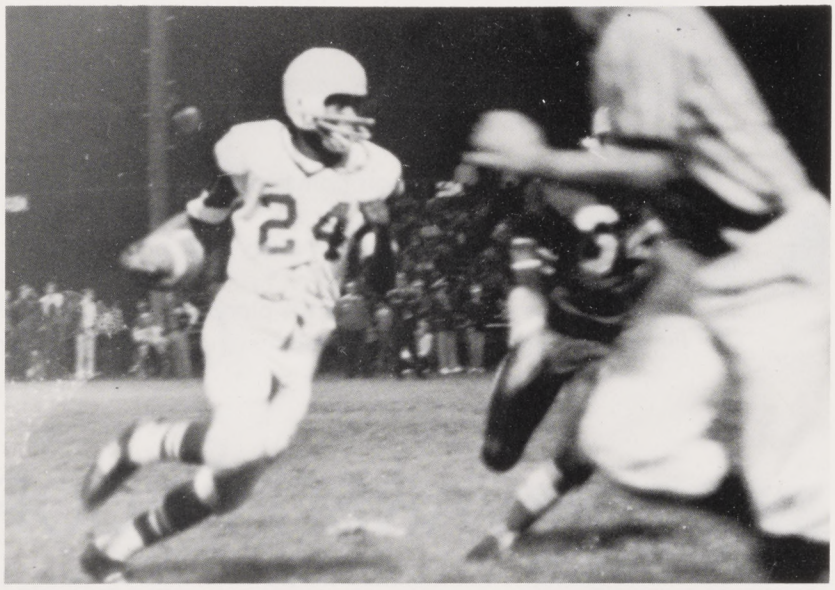
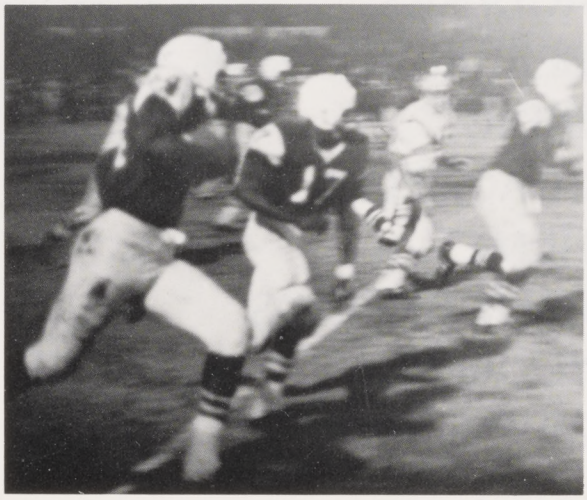
Indio

Backed by the solid support of the fans and inspired with the thrill of new challenges, the Broncos battled to an easy win over the Rajahs. Highpoints of the game were Ferris Geter's three touchdowns, and George Wesson's recovery of a fumble and spectacular 46 yard run. Halftime was marked by an outstanding performance by the Broncettes.

Coachella

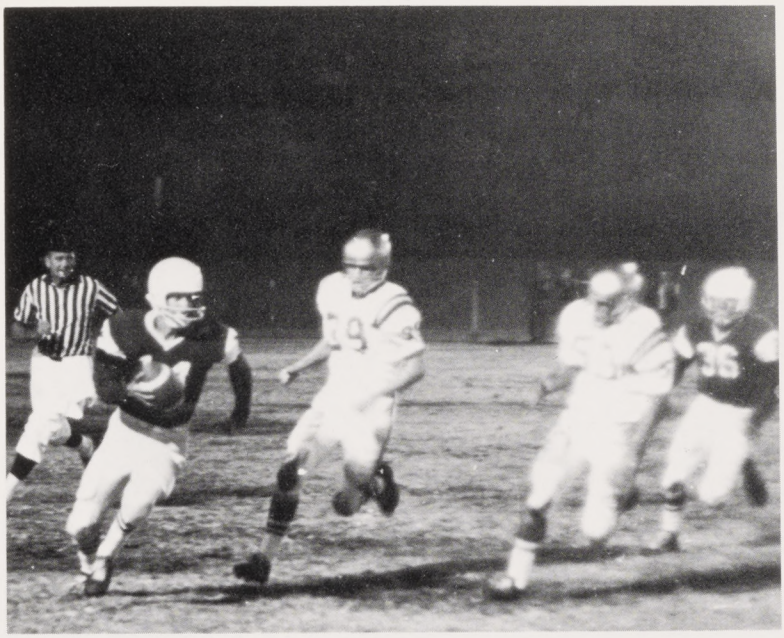
The first three quarters of the Coachella game saw the broncos and Arabs involved in a tiring contest with frequently tied scores and evenly matched talents. In the fourth quarter, though, fortune turned against Banning, and the Arabs achieved a painful 21-14 lead they were able to maintain.





Hemet

The high hopes of Bronco fans, elevated to a peak by Alonzo Brown's early and promising touchdown, by the halftime crowning of Queen Len Callahan, could not, in all their intensity prevent the Bulldog's Point-After-Touchdown kick from sailing over the goal and placing that one fatal point on the scoreboard. Even the 7-6 score, though, could not ruin the charm and pleasure of the annual Homecoming Dance.



Palm Springs

For the first few minutes of the Palm Springs game, the Bannings fans were too dazzled by the splinter free bleachers to be aware of the equally dazzling action on the field. Once they became accustomed to the rare comfort, they watched with pride as The Broncos, led by Tim McCann, Ernie Flores, Alonzo Brown, and Ferris Geter, carried the ball to a 27-13 victory over the much-favored Indians, deflating the swollen Palm Springs egos with each successful pass.

Yucaipa

Tension, fast play, excitement, all the classic elements of football, characterized the Yucaipa game. Much was at stake in this game, and both teams were electrically aware of what victory could mean. By a minor but tragically important one point, the T-Birds sent the Broncos home defeated scorewise, but still champions in spirit.

29 Palms

The last game of the season, with 29 Palms, in part, made up for the disappointment of the Yucaipa game. Tim McCann, quarterback, aided by halfbacks Alonzo Brown and Ferris Geter, tackle Ken Irwin, and Ernie Flores, were in control of the ball almost constantly, bringing Banning's last game in the DVL to a 30-14 ending.

"They hung up on me!"

"Ha, ha—you'll never find him now."

"I'm a Halo Girl!"

"One Scotch on the rocks, comin' up."

"Batter up!"

"Anyone for push-ups?"

"Try and make me."

"Next time I get shoeboxes."

"Mommy, will I grow up to be a big boy?"

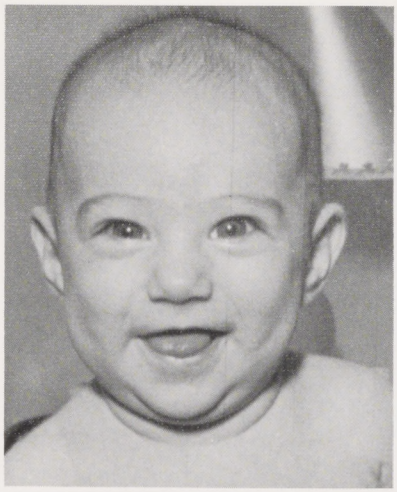
"Drop dead."



"You've got your problems; I've got mine."

"Songleading can wait, but this can't."

Ride 'um, Linda.

"And Daddy said I could drive to San Francisco all by myself!"

"Smile when you say that, Stranger."

"Aren't I a doll?"

"Come on in, the water's fine."

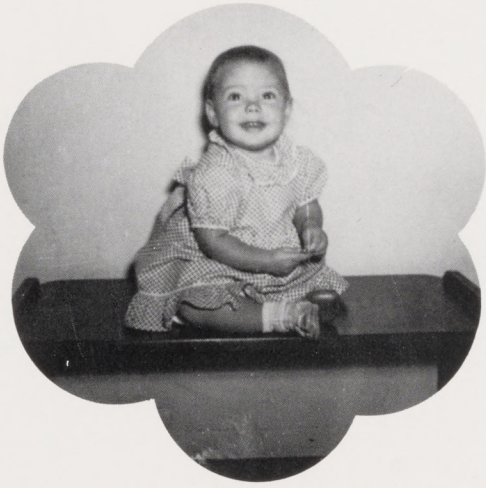
The White Knight rides again!

"I never could keep my shoulders straight."

"I use Ivory."

"Ready, set-hut 1, hut 2, hut 3."

"So what! Who needs 'em anyway!"



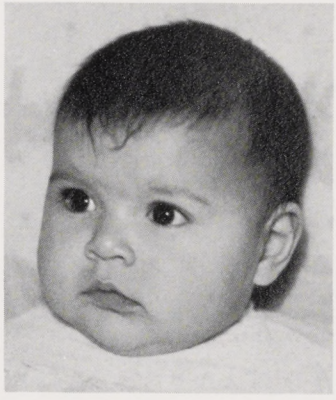
"Do you believe in magic?"

"I'll never tell who raided the cookie jar."

"The sky is falling!"

"Little girls have pretty curls and so do I!"

"Try to take my picture again and I'll bop you with my lolly pop!"



"One step closer and I'll . . ."

"I'm a boy, I'm a boy, but my mom won't admit it."

"This is Alice on her way to wonderland."

"Send your contributions to . . . "

"Me and my shadow go everywhere together."

"Gotcha"

"You may not believe this, but my name is Granny Goose."

"Playboy bunny, 1953"

"Now where did I bury Daddy?"

"But I use a mouthwash—my old family favorite."

"The Dodge Rebellion wants YOU!"

"Isn't it about time we got a new car, Mike—insured for two?"

"Hurry up and take the picture—we're getting tired of this."

"You can tell she's a Sego girl."

The success of Banning High School's yearbooks has for many years depended on the skill of Mr. Leonard McCulloh. Extremely able and amazingly patient, Mr. McCulloh has always been ready when we needed him, willing to donate his valuable time when we needed his help. All of us on the San Gorgonian staff, in fact, all of us at Banning High School are grateful to him.

JAYCEES—MEN OF ACTION

Everywhere in our community, in recreation and in business, the Banning Jaycees are involved and active. Here, three members brand a picnic table in Repplier Park, one of their many contributions to Banning.
